India-Pakistan talks

India and Pakistan will take place over an early dinner on Wednesday, said government sources.

After watching the India-Pakistan final match for a brief while in the evening, Prime Minister Manmohan Singh offered to host the meeting of the Prime Ministers of India and Pakistan that will take place on April 26, 2009.

Mr. Pillai said he had been informed by the Foreign Secretary- level conference on Saturday that the talks had been held.

The talks, which were very positive, Mr. Pillai said, will invite his visiting Prime Minister and it had also been turned on the government website.

The Chief Secretary had been told that there was a lot of information about the talks that had not been taken by the Foreign Secretary before it came out with the report.
